UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

DANIEL ANDREW WALKER,

Defendant.

No. 2:19-CR-00234-KJM

DUE PROCESS PROTECTIONS

ACT ORDER

Under federal law, including Rule 5(f) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), and all applicable decisions from the Supreme Court and the Ninth Circuit interpreting Brady, the government has a continuing obligation to produce all information or evidence known to the government relating to guilt or punishment that might reasonably be considered favorable to the defendant's case, even if the evidence is not admissible so long as it is reasonably likely to lead to admissible evidence. See United States v. Price, 566 F.3d 900, 913 n.14 (9th Cir. 2009). Accordingly, the court orders the government to produce to the defendant in a timely manner all such information or evidence.

1 Information or evidence may be favorable to a defendant's case if it either may help
2 bolster the defendant's case or impeach a prosecutor's witness or other government evidence. If
3 doubt exists, it should be resolved in favor of the defendant with full disclosure being made.

4 If the government believes that a required disclosure would compromise witness safety,
5 victim rights, national security, a sensitive law-enforcement technique, or any other substantial
6 government interest, the government may apply to the Court for a modification of the 7 requirements of this Disclosure Order, which may include in camera review and/or withholding
8 or subjecting to a protective order all or part of the information.

9 This Disclosure Order is entered under Rule 5(f) and does not relieve any party in this
10 matter of any other discovery obligation. The consequences for violating either this Disclosure
11 Order or the government's obligations under Brady include, but are not limited to, the following:
12 contempt, sanction, referral to a disciplinary authority, adverse jury instruction, exclusion of 13 evidence, and dismissal of charges. Nothing in this Disclosure Order enlarges or diminishes the 14 government's obligation to disclose information and evidence to a defendant under Brady, as 15 interpreted and applied under Supreme Court and Ninth Circuit precedent. As the Supreme Court
16 noted, "the government violates the Constitution's Due Process Clause 'if it withholds evidence 17 that is favorable to the defense and material to the defendant's guilt or punishment.'" Turner v.
18 United States, 137 S. Ct. 1885, 1888 (2017), quoting Smith v. Cain, 565 U.S. 73, 75 (2012).

19 DATE: May 12, 2021.
